He Declares for War. A Conflict Impending.

In the late of the initiatory measures toward extending suffrage to distanchised whites.

This he does not do, but, basing his prescription and harsh advice to the Legislature on sileged outrages of the Kuklux, he favors the calling out of an unlimited number of militio, black and white. The Legislature will undoubtedly act on his advice, and then bloodshed and violence can hardly be aroided, as the people of the State and forbearance and pattence carbon the Brownlow government has glaced them.

Public meetings are being held all over the fatte and forbearance and pattence carbon and the Brownlow government has glaced them.

Public meetings are being held all over the fatte and forbearance and pattence carbon and becoming general that the present state of affairs cannot last much bonger and a conflict is impending.

MR ROSS objected unless he should be a received at the office of the representation to take the unless he should be a received at the opening and results of affairs cannot last much bonger and a conflict is impending.

Mr. BANKS made spoint of order that the bill must be first considered in the committee of the whole.

The SPEAKER aunounced the point of order on the ground that it was made too late.

Mr. BANKS asserted that he had not lost his right to object, as he could not do so until he had heard the bill road.

The SPEAKER stated that the bill had been read by its title, and this having been the third or fourth attempt to pass it. I contents must have been known.

Mr SCHENK Exproceeded to explain that whill the bill was reported under the exhibiting law, the prostration of the interest was oo great that the optentives at the milees were starving or going to the poor-house by hundrods, or receiving and by charity to get away will the steamboats on the lakes were being reduced from daily to weekly trips; appeals were made by several members in behalf of nicked, block lead, and had interest.

Mr. BOUTWELL asked Mr. Schenck winther he was not to report on the fun lag and whether he was endangering the passage of that important measure by maisting re
